

Weekly Meeting Minutes May 20, 2009

Weekly Meetings: Wednesday @ Noon North Hills Country Club, N73 W13430 Appleton Ave. (262) 251-5750

We joined together with LeRoy Cooper leading us in the pledge and Deron Butler offering up the prayer; all recited the four-way test. Alas, due to our full agenda today, Mike refrained from delivering his weekly joke.

Today, we welcomed Sarah Hahn from Riverside School as our Student of the Month. Sarah was almost unanimously selected by her teachers for her quiet leadership, and her many varied interests, making her a well-rounded student who leads by example. Sarah thanked everyone for the honor of being selected the Student of the Month.

Speaker: Tom Pyne represents the Rotary Youth Exchange Program. Formerly from Dublin, Ireland, Tom & his wife have spent 40 years in the USA. They are both Rotarians, previously serving clubs in California, now here in the Milwaukee area.

Tom's role at the district level is to build awareness for this valuable program, so we can spread the word and recruit schools to participate. Key ideas were:

- The time to act is NOW! Because of the long cycle to nominate students, schools should be visited in May to plant the seed that this program exists.
- It has been difficult to recruit American high school students because most schools are not aware of this valuable program.
- Students are ambassadors to approximately 15 countries.
- Youth Exchange is more than just attending school in a foreign country. Students are fully absorbed into other cultures.
- Participation in this program helps students learn life lessons that are valuable resume building experiences.

Guests: Dorothy Lewis was our guest today.

Raffle: Card raffle, no winner. Chuck Wendelberger won Mary Jo's birthday raffle.

Happy/Sad/Other fines: Dr Sri paid a fine for distributing his brochures & business cards.

- Kim was happy to be going visiting in South Carolina.
- Pam happily paid this fine instead of having to pay a different fine! ??? Also, was happy that Chuck W. was back.
- Mike was 3x happy - happy to introduce our Student of the Month, happy about scholarships, and happy for the great weather.

Health report: Most everyone is healthy. Please keep Paul and Bill McDonald in your prayers.

Announcements:

- Changing of the Guard is Wednesday evening, June 24. There will not be a noon lunch meeting that day.
- The board meeting will be Friday, May 29.
